Events

Sugar on Snow with Square-dancing Take out square dancing and add a story snowshoe hike

Sugar on Snow/Snowshoe Story Hike

The name is full of S's ~ open to ideas on name but advertising needs to begin very soon.

Event Date and Time:

Saturday, March 19th at the Thornton Public Library

(there is a nice area to gather behind with benches and a whiteboard all made by the Eagle Scouts a few years back)

Snowshoe Story Hike ~ 10 am

* a guided, short, snowshoe hike with interactive story/posters/maple related, on the trails behind the library (1 hour max)

Sugar on Snow ~ 11:30am

* Classic Sugar on Snow and a list of local sugar houses in the area participating for folks to visit after us or Sunday

Judy will look in the stock and see what we have for paper products, very little should be needed for this event. Hot Chocolate and water will be offered too.

Vivica will reach out to Susan Gannett, a Thornton author to see if she would like to read or incorporate her stories into the day.

Kerry Benton and possibly Matt Durrell to boil sugar down while we hike/story.

Judy will get the ice shaver for "snow" and start a poster

Debbie will get info to Joelle for the Record enterprise around the town section.

Tabled— 2022 calendar and assigning event owners

- Committee housekeeping—Old Business

Wood Raffle sponsored by Pemi Valley Forest Products-Chris Bell was won by Cheryl Mchale ~ recount on proceeds, seemed low ~ Turn in to Town Hall

Storage updates-Leslie is taking control of the storage task at the Town House- 2 people needed to meet with Debra- get the key and find out which door- Kerry offered to bust a hole in the snow banks with his tractor so we can put our stuff in there.

Tabled—Committee Officers for 2022

Vivica Duffield would like to become a member. Just need an address and phone number to make a recommendation to the Selectmen and then after that, she can arrange to be sworn in.
